Iberá Marshes- Subtropical Paradise

We will make an overland trip to Iguazú rainforest: palmettoes, amazing wildlife, spectacular waterfalls; the Jesuit Mission ruins and the Iberá marshes, the second largest marshland in South America. An unforgettable opportunity to listen to mysterious stories about this magical and fascinating land

DAY 01 PUERTO IGUAZU

Reception at Puerto Iguazú airport and transfer to Sheraton International Hotel. The Iguazú National Park is the richest biological area in the country. The afternoon will be spent exploring on foot and by train the Argentine side of this World Heritage Site, considered by many, the most spectacular waterfalls on Earth. Two hundred streams appear from the rainforest, forming a myriad of gorgeous falls 70 meters (230 feet high), mixing graciously with the lush surrounding vegetation.

DAY 02 PUERTO IGUAZU

In the morning, visit to the Brazilian side to enjoy the panoramic view of the falls and the rainforest enhanced by fascinating rainbows. Accommodation.

DAY 03 PUERTO IGUAZU / JESUIT MISSION / IBERA MARSHES

Drive southward to the imposing San Ignacio Mini Jesuit Mission, that dates back to the XVII century. Then we will continue to Colonia Carlos Pellegrini, close to the Iberá Marshlands in Corrientes province, which are double the size of the Everglades in Florida, US. Until recently, these inaccessible marshes have protected a wide range of wildlife and are considered one of the most spectacular natural regions in South America, having been covered by National Geographic and BBC. Accommodation in an exclusive and comfortable inn for 2 nights. Full Board.

DAY 04 - IBERA MARSHES

Explore this fascinating region, its ponds, marshes, aquatic vegetation, islands, woods, by day and night, on foot, on boats poled by 'gauchos' and game drives. We should expect to find capybaras: largest rodent on Earth, weighing up to 80 kg (176 pounds), caymans, marsh deers, howlers and carayá monkeys, aquatic turtles, abundant and varied water fowls (jabiru storks, southern screamers, jacanas and rheas among others, butterflies, wild flowers, birds, etc. Full Board.

DAY 05 - IBERÁ

Transfer to Posadas airport.

DAY 01 - OBERA / ENCARNACION / OBERA
Arrival at Posadas airport. Reception. Transfer to Encarnación (Paraguay) crossing San Roque González bridge to visit two out of the eight settlements of the Paraguayan region: the ruins of Trinidad del Paraná, to admire the remains of its imposing church and its sophisticated construction; and the ruins of Jesús de Tavarangue, to appreciate the facade of the church and its Spanish-Moorish influence. Return to Posadas. Lunch. Visit Oberá, located in the heart of the subtropical jungle, founded and conformed by immigrants of fourteen different nationalities, whose culture and traditions are still untouched. Accommodation. In the afternoon, we will take a short city tour that will allow us to visit the major points of interest, such as the Park of the Nations, the Bird Garden, and the Zootoxicological Centre.

DAY 02 - OBERA

Breakfast. Departure to San Javier. We will cross the Uruguay river by boat, to arrive at Brazil to visit the ruins of San Miguel Das Misiones (1634), which was the capital of all seven Missions in southern Brazil. Its renaissance style church was built in 1735, with stones brought by the indians from 20 km (12 miles) away. Visit the interesting museum, whose assets include pieces from the missions spread all over the region. Lunch. In the afternoon, return to Oberá. Accommodation.

DAY 03 - OBERA

Breakfast. Visit to the 'yerba mate' and tea processing plant. Transfer to Santa Ana village to visit the ruins of the Jesuit settlement of the same name, which is located in the middle of the jungle, where the main square, the church, the houses and the cemetery are still visible. Visit Nuestra Señora de Loreto ruins (1632) which had the outstanding privilege of having the first printer of the region. Visit to the renowned ruins of San Ignacio Mini (1632). This mission, that once had more than 3,000 inhabitants, is nowadays the best preserved; therefore, it was the clearest representation of the Jesuit culture. These ruins have been declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. Lunch. Accommodation in Oberá.

The Jesuit Missions represents the native catholic cultural mixture, an area which is a real example of a political and social organization. The rich architecture and the ornamentation of the settlement after the expulsion of the Jesuit Fathers, turned abruptly into ruins that are nowadays, visited by tourists from all over the world.

DAY 04 - OBERA / PUERTO IGUAZU

Breakfast. Departure to the Iguazú Falls. On the way, visit to the semiprecious stone field in Wanda. Arrival at Iguazú. Visit to the Argentine falls, surrounded by the most exuberant subtropical flora, and declared World Heritage Site by UNESCO. Walk through the Upper and Lower paths for a closer view of this beauty. Accommodation at Sheraton International Hotel. Dinner.

DAY 05 - PUERTO IGUAZU

Breakfast. Take an open train departing from the Visitor's Center to make the journey up to 'Garganta Station' where you will get off for a 1,200 meter (3/4 of a mile) walk up to the Devil's Throat balcony, to share one of the greatest sceneries on Earth. Return by train to the Visitor's Center.

Then we will take the 'Great Adventure', a brief navigation that will let us approach to the bottom of the San Martín and Tres Mosqueteros Falls with an outstanding view of the Devil's Throat. Take a 4WD truck for a fascinating jungle safari along the Macuco trail, to get in touch with the secrets of the rainforest. Return to the hotel. Dinner.

DAY 06 - PUERTO IGUAZU

Breakfast. Visit to the Brazilian side for a panoramic view of the falls framed by a myriad of rainbows. Transfer to the airport.
