

Estancias Tour

A fascinating tour around some noble estancias and farms in the Argentinean Northwest to get in touch with the typical farm activities that are carried out locally, such as the production of jams, cheese, wines and the harvesting of different regional products. All of this within the most beautiful landscape.

DAY 01 SAN MIGUEL DE TUCUMAN / TAFI DEL VALLE / CAFAYATE
Reception at the airport and visit Villa Nogués and San Javier hill, to get a panoramic view of the city. Continue to Tafi del Valle through Los Sosa gorge, an area of exuberant subtropical vegetation, passing by the Calchaqui Indian Monument and El Mollar, with the Provincial Park, Menhires a reserve of great archeological value. Arrival at Tafi del Valle, entrance gate to the Calchaqui Valleys, famous for the locally made goat cheese and the beautiful landscapes. Continue along National Route 40, we will pass by Amaicha del Valle, and continue to Quilmes, where the ruins of an old Indian settlement are located. After a short visit to this interesting archeological site we will continue to Cafayate where we will visit a wine cellar. Accommodation. Dinner.
