Torres del Paine - Chile

Post-tour

This tour takes you into Torres del Paine National Park. Located in southern Chile, this park is considered one of the most spectacular National Parks due to its towers and horns which seem like real columns sculpted by glaciers. Punta Arenas is also a very nice place to visit. It is the capital of the Magallanes Region and a center for commerce, culture and society, where it is still possible to feel in the air the majestic touch of its rich past.

Fitz Roy Post-tour

Take this chance to visit El Chaltén, a tiny Andean town located at the foothill of Mount Fitz Roy (3,405 mts or 11,170 ft) and Mount Torre (3,102 mts or 10,177 ft). This is a destination highly appreciated by andinists all over the world due to the challenge posed by its steep slopes, specially enticing for risk lovers. This tiny town was founded in 1985, its population reaches 300 inhabitants and it has been declared the National Trekking Capital. This is the perfect place to enjoy the solitude of these enchanted lands, where nature reigns and where man has left very few traces.

DAY 08 EL CALAFATE / EL CHALTÉN

Breakfast. Early transfer by regular bus line to El Chaltén. Reception and accommodation. We will go trekking to Pliegue Tumbado, the only place in the area where there is a complete sightseeing of the most important mountains of Patagonia: Mt. Torre and Mt. Fitz Roy. A wonderful, unforgettable image that will be printed in your heart for ever. Return to the hotel.

DAY 09 EL CHALTÉN

Breakfast. Full day trekking to Río Blanco Glacier, passing by Mt. Rosado and Mt. León. We will border Chorrillo del Salto river, where we will appreciate a breathtaking view of the Fitz Roy and Saint Exupery massifs. Walk to the Capri Lagoon, enjoying a stroll along the mountains, rivers and forests, all of these part of the beautiful scenery of Patagonia, known worldwide for being a good place for trekking. We will continue to Río Blanco up to the camp site to initiate the ascention to Laguna de Los Tres, at the foothill of Mt. Fitz Roy (8 hours).

DAY 10 EL CHALTÉN / EL CALAFATE

Breakfast. In the morning, optional trekking to Torre Lake, skirting the Fitz Roy River, and through a lenga wood where it's common to see red head woodpeckers and flocks of parrots. Arrival at the camp site, base of the climbing expeditions and continuing to Bridwell Camp for an excellent panoramic view of Torre Lake, Las Adelas Glacier, Torre Glacier and Mt. Torre (6 hours). Return to the town and in the afternoon, transfer to El Calafate by regular bus line. Reception at the bus station and transfer to the hotel. Accommodation.
